UltraTape Expands Label Business with Asset Acquisition

Wilsonville, OR, October 22, 2013 – UltraTape Industries, a division of Delphon and leading manufacturer of cleanroom tape and label products, today announced the acquisition of the assets of a Silicon Valley label business as part of the company's ongoing expansion of its critical environment label product line.

The assets have been relocated to UltraTape's newly expanded manufacturing facility in Wilsonville, Oregon. "We are excited that the new equipment will expand our critical environment label products for the medical, semiconductor, biotechnology, and electronics industries. The increased capacity will allow us to keep up with our customers' increasing demand for our custom cleanroom label products," says Lance Ochs, UltraTape Sales Manager.
